

Intro	D – A – G
Verse	D – A G D – A G	Well my buckle makes impressions... inside of her thigh There are little... tussled through the night If I'd known she was religious... have came stoned To the house of such an angel... to get back home
Interlude	D – A – G
Verse	D – A G D – A G	Looking over West Virginia... spirits on the roof She asked ain't anybody told ya... things are bad for you I said, "Many folks have warned me... several people try But up 'til now, there ain't... that I couldn't leave behind"
Pre-Chorus	A7 - G	Hold me close, my dear Sing your whispering song Softly in my ear And I will sing along
Chorus	Bm – A – G Bm – A – G A G – G – D	Honey, tell me how your love runs true And how I can always count on you To be there when the bullets fly I'd run across the river just to hold you tonight
Interlude	D – A – G
Verse	D – A G D – A G	Well, my heart is sweating bullets... circles, it has raced Like a little feathered Indian... Calling out the clouds for rain I'd go running through the thicket... through the thorns Just to hold her for a minute... leave me wanting more
Pre-Chorus	A7 - G	Hold me close, my dear Sing your whispering song Softly in my ear And I will sing along
Chorus	Bm – A – G Bm – A – G A G – G – D	Honey, tell me how your love runs true And how I can always count on you To be there when the bullets fly I'd run across the river just to hold you tonight
Outro	D – A – G D – A – G Bm (ring)
